EXTRAORDINARY CUT GLASS VALUES.

Extraordinary is the only word to fairly indicate the remarkable values that this week is developing in the HUMBER STORE. In Cut Glass, for example, there are chances to buy superb pieces, such as would most readily be selected for wedding gifts—and the prices are often less than half what such things usually cost. Here's a hint—but you will hardly realize what the offering really means until you actually see the brilliant Cut Glass that is going for so little.

Great West Lumber Co. Safe.

After a week's most strenuous effort J. D. Kennedy, President and Manager of the Great West Lumber Company can report the log output of the Company safe and all danger from loss over.

That 45,000 logs could possibly be saved from the raging torrent that came down the river last week is evidence of the excellent judgement of Manager Kennedy who hardly slept a wink all week in laying his plans and carrying them out. He knew the logs were coming, he prepared to receive them and not a chain broke or a part of the plan miscarried. Everything worked like clock work and Mr. Kennedy has the proud distinction of probably being the only manager in the West who can report practically no loss from his drive. In the first place the logs came in the day time, and they came in just ahead of the heaviest flood Saturday and Sunday, thereby giving the Company a chance to save them. If they had came a day or two later nothing could have prevented a heavy loss as the mouth of the canal was choked with brush wood, trees and even a log house came down and lodged on the bar. Altogether the Company are to be congratulated on their good fortune.

The Late Mrs. Everett Martin

Word came on Sunday of the death of Mrs. Everett Martin, the sad event taking place at Edmonton on Sunday last. Mrs. Martin's death was not unexpected. For five months previous to her death she was confined to her bed and she was a patient sufferer. Death come early Sunday morning, and the body was brought to Red Deer on Monday evening's train.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon last from the Methodist church, under the supervision of Mr. Stone, where the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Brown in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Huestis. There was a large number of friends present to pay the last sad respects to the departed, and the casket was covered with a number of beautiful wreaths. Interment took place in the family plot in Red Deer cemetery.

Mrs. Martin was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coram, of Springvale, and Mrs. Coram was in Edmonton when her daughter died.

Mr. Martin and the two children accompanied the body to Red Deer. The bereaved husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friens in Red Deer and vicinity.

Ontario and Quebec Elections.

TREMENDOUS VICTORY FOR CONSERVATIVES.

The returns of the elections in Ontario and Quebec on Monday. the 8th of June, go to show that the people of Canada are ready to deal with the Laurier Administration, when it appeals to the people, by turning it out of office. The longer the Government puts off the contest, the greater will be the majority against it. The following is how things stand in the East :

ONTARIO SUMMARY.

Toronto, June 8.—Early in the evening it was known that the Whitney goverment had swept the province, but by midnight the government majority had swelled from 40 of last administration to 65, an increase of 25. All ministers were returned except the Hon. Nelson Monteith, minister of agriculture, who was defeated in South Perth by Valentine Stock. In the province the Conservatives gained a score of seats, and the Liberals seven. Hon. A. G. Mackay sustained by a majority of 80. In London Hon. Adam Beck, father of the power policy, was returned by a fifteen hundred majority, and the gains in Western Ontario were principally made in those constituences where the policy received the necessary endorsation. Toronto was solidly Conservative, four new seats remaining with the Conservatives. Result, Conservatives 87, Liberals 17, Independents 1, not heard from Temiskaming.

QUEBEC SUMMARY.

Montreal, June 8.—Returns received shortly after midnight indicate that the Gouin administration has been supported in the elections of at least thirty-nine. The latest Liberals show 55 Liberals elected to 16 opposition members. The latter category including 14 Conservatives and two Nationalists, while two independent Liberals are counted on the Liberal government side which they will undoubtedly support. The net result of the elections is that the Gouin government will go back, but will have to face a much larger and stronger opposition, while the Premier will have to return with the worst kind of a black eye, in that he was defeated in his home riding by Mr. Bourassa, who converted a Liberal majority of a thousand into a minority for Mr. Hon. Gouin of 41. The duel between Premier Gouin and Bourassa was the spectacular contest of the campaign, and absorbed the interest not merely of the province but of the whole country, since the Laurier Government had deliberately stepped into the defence of Premier Gouin, and had sent Hon. Messrs. Brodeur and Lemieux to speak for the Premier. and declared that a vote for Mr. Bourassa was a vote for the Conservative party and one against Laurier.

Sporting Notes.

The sports committee of the Dominion Day celebration meets to-night in Dr. Plaxton's rooms at 8 p.m.

The lacrosse game set for Friday last was postponed on account of the rain.

There is talk of the School Basket Ball team running up against the Lacombe team shortly. Lacombe have been champions so far but wait until they meet the Red Deer girls.

The prevailing precipitation of moisture ceased on Wednesday long enough to permit the first baseball game of the season on Lacombe grounds, between Lacombe and Bulltown, Lacombe winning on a 21 to 2 score.—Says the Advertiser.

THE GUN CLUB.

The weekly Gun Club shoot took place on Monday evening. There was a good attendance and splendid light. The following is the score:

CLASS A.—Drake, 19; Plaxton, 19; Stephenson, 21; Cottingham, 19; Brumpton, 13; Marr, 21. On the shoot off Stephenson got the gold button, Drake the silver, although Capt. Cottingham was overlooked, and Brumpton the bronze. Cottingham afterwards got the silver button on a toss up.

CLASS B.—R. L. Gaetz, 10; L. M. Gaetz, 13; Ware, 15; Carswell, 19; Heinrich, 8; Hill, 5; Helliwell, 12; Menzies, 12; Kennedy, 16; Jim Gaetz, 8; Payne, 6. Carswell took the gold button; Kennedy the silver on a shoot off, and Ware the bronze. Carswell goes up into A class, having killed more than fifteen birds three times. It was arranged to shoot for the silver cup of 1907 by last year's members on Monday evening next at the regular shoot.

A meeting was held at the Windsor Hotel on Saturday, June 6th, by the Red Deer Cricket Club for the purpose of selecting officers for the coming season. The result was as follows:

President—J. L. Crawford.
Vice President—W. P. Helliwell.
Captain—A. T. Stephenson.
Vice Captain—J. I. Mann.
Hon. Sec.-Treas.—P. E. Kent.
Committee—H. L. Gaetz, E. Cork, and H. G. Neville.

The secretary states the pitch will be selected and made this week, and practice is likely to be commenced by the end of the week. All desirous of becoming members please communicate with the secretary.

The outlook for the season appears to be most promising, and the secretory would like all outside clubs to write so as to arrange dates for matches.

The boys at the Indian Industrial school have selected the following school yell:

Boys and girls of the I.—I.—S.
Are we smart?—well—I guess,
Rickety—rookety—ruckety—ra
Indian school—ra—ra—ra.

Note: The advantages of a yell. There is always cheering for any local team. It sometimes approaches the ludricous when it is done spasmodically, but with a union of voices it becomes more forcible and it is a definite way of expression. Let the town teams take note.

The lacrosse club will, weather permitting, play a game with Lacombe club at the park, Friday evening,game called at 7.30 sharp. The team will be selected out of the following players: Dick Jarvis, Rus. Welton, H. R. Main, Dan Smith, Will Pamplin, C. H. Chapman, A. E. Bingham, E. Smith, J. B. Sewell, E. R. D. Porter, E. McDonald, Halliburton, Tom Winfield and F. Swanson.

There will be a practice this Wednesday night when a team will be picked. The club's colors are red and white.

Turn out and see the lacrosse game on Friday evening next.

At an organization meeting of the Alberta Amateur Athletic association held at Calgary, the 28th of May, the following Board of governors for the province were elected: W. A. Buchanan, of Lethbridge; Dr. Stanley, High River; D. L. Dorroch, Calgary; P. Helliwell, Red Deer; Hon. C. W. Cross, Edmonton; J. W. Ward, Edmonton; F. A. Walker, M. P. P., Fort Saskatchewan; and H. Ballantyne, Calgary, secretary-treasurer. The Board will act as the executive body of the association and according to the method of appointment will elect its own chairman. The association will affiliate with the Canadian Amateur Athletic association and upon agreement with them all athletes at present resident in the province are now declared amateurs, except those against whom action has been taken by the above body.

Don't forget the race meet next Tuesday and Wednesday at Alexandra park.

The first baseball game of the season was played last night between the Wigwams and Independents and was a little one-sided the Wigwams winning by the score of 20 to 6. Some of the Independents were unable to attend and they will probably do better next game.

Last night The School Football Team again won out, defeating Penhold by 2-0. It was a good game and the Penhold fellows put up a good game especially in their defence which certainly puzzled the school team. Red Deer scored their first goal in about one minute from kick-off and that ended the scoring for the first half. The second goal was won on a corner kick which was nicely passed in, and Penhold not being able to score the Red Deer boys came out winners.

COLD STORAGE GRAFT.

Sir Frederick Borden's Son-in-law Gets Rake-off.

During the last week in May the House of Commons discussed an interesting deal in which the Minister of Militia is concerned. Sir Frederick sometimes turns his attention from martial pursuits to financial operations. Cold storage attracted his attention two years ago, which happened to be about the time when a cold storage subsidy act was devised by the Government, of which he is a member. Actors in this little drama include:

Sir Frederick Borden, K.C.M.G., M. P., Minister of Militia.

Hon. Sidney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture.

Hon. William Pugsley, ex-Premier of New Brunswick.

L. S. Macoun, broker, of Ottawa, and son-in-law to Sir Frederick Borden. Extensive vendor of metal and other supplies to the Dominion Government Arsenal.

P. J. Graham, engaged by Mr. Macoun as Manager of cold storage operations.

George McAvity of St. John, President of the Local Liberal organization.

Lastly F. E. Williams, a prominent wholesale provision merchant of St. John, who desired to establish a cold storage warehouse and carry it on as a business proposition.

A BUSINESS UNDERTAKING.

Mr. Williams handles large quantities of meats, fish and fruit. He first proposed to establish a bait freezing and fish storing warehouse, similar to those receiving Government subsidies, in Nova Scotia, with the idea of adding other cold storage plants without public assistance. He was told by the Minister of Marine that bait freezing could only be subsidized as a separate enterprise, but that the Department of Agriculture had a cold storage measure suitable to the case. It was in this year, 1906, that Mr. Fisher introduced his bill authorizing bonuses of 30 per cent. on the cost of cold storage plants.

UP AGAINST A MINISTER.

This suited Mr. Williams better, and he changed his application. It is established by the correspondence that Williams was the first to apply. But he soon learned that Sir Fred. Borden and his son-in-law were rival applicants. Mr. Williams was invited to go in with them, without control or management, but declined and pressed his own application on the Minister of Agriculture. But as he was only a dealer in provisions and fruits with practical knowledge of the trade and conditions, he could not hope to compete with a Minister who was a doctor, and with the Minister's son-in-law, who was an Ottawa broker, already engaged in selling supplies to the Militia Department.

Mr. Williams could not waste time competing with rivals in the Cabinet, against whom he could have no chance. So he wrote to Mr. Fisher asking whether his application was to be considered or whether Sir Frederick Borden was preferred. Mr. Fisher showed what he might expect by replying:

SIR FRED.'S APPLICATION.

"We have not yet made any "grant for the cold storage ware-"house in St. John. Sir Frederick "has made application on behalf "of a company with which he is "connected, and I have viewed "his application very favourably."

The Minister declined to make any promises without definite plans.

Williams wrote again, asking the Minister to inform him plainly if it would be worth while to go further, and protesting against "giving a grant to a Cabinet Minister and leaving out the business men who should be the proper parties to take up the proposition." This time the Deputy replied that William's application would receive due consideration.

Meanwhile, son-in-law Macoun had easy sailing. He engaged as manager Mr. Graham who was afterwards made President of his Company. Mr. Graham took the matter up with Hon. Mr. Fisher, beginning his letter with the statement that "Sir Frederick Borden requested me to interview you in reference to aid for our cold storage propositions at St. John and Halifax." Mr. Fisher was able to tell Mr. Graham at once that what he proposed was "quite satisfactory." The end of it was that the Company with which Sir Fred. Borden was "connected" got the subsidy.

ANOTHER CONCESSION.

But this was not quite the end. The best site in St. John for the warehouse was on Government railway property. There was a lot that the Government had bought for $54,000, and on which it spent $4,000 or $5,000 afterwards. This was leased for 60 years to the Macoun Company for $250 per year with freedom from taxation.

MR. PUGSLEY'S HELP.

Next came a deal between the favoured Company and a New Brunswick corporation in which Hon. Mr. Pugley, head of the Provincial Government, had taken a friendly interest. George McAvity, Mr. Pugsley's party manager in St. John, and the late Mr. Trueman, Mr. Pugsley's former law partner, were directors. They obtained a guarantee of principal and interest on $60,000. The McAvity Company and the Macoun Company having a pull with both governments were amalgamated. They have now a contract with the Dominion Government for $37,500 bonus on the 30 per cent. basis, and the Government admits that it is considering an increased grant, bringing it up to $45,000. They have a $60,000 guarantee from New Brunswick, and when the late Provincial Government was turned out of office, it left on the record a promise to increase it by $30,000.

APPEAL TO THE PREMIER.

Mr. Williams appealed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He told the Premier that he had taken up the matter with the Ministers in 1906, had been summoned to Ottawa in January, 1907, had there met Sir Frederick and his son-in-law, who told him that Mr. Fisher had already promised them a grant under the Act not yet passed, that Sir Frederick offered to take him in but not on fair terms, and that the Minister had boasted "that he would have influence enough to have my proposition sidetracked."

Williams asked Sir Wilfrid to intervene, and said: "I cannot think that you are aware of the facts in connection with this transaction, or that you can approve of a Minister of the Crown deriving aid from the Government for the furtherance of the interests of a company in which he is so largely interested."

Sir Wilfrid, who apparently had not seen the papers, made reply that the Macoun Company was the only one which had submitted application in proper form, that the grant was made without regard to persons, and not until late in August, 1907. But it was in the previous April that Mr. Fisher wrote: "Sir Frederick Borden has made application on behalf of a company with which he is connected, and I have viewed his application very favourably"; and it was in January, 1907, that Williams was in Ottawa and met Sir Fred. Borden, who, according to Williams' statement to the Premier, boasted that he already had a promise of a grant and would have influence enough to side-track Williams'.

HAPPY MACOUN.

Sir Fred. Borden now denies any financial interest in the existing N. B. Cold Storage Company, and pleads that his son-in-law should not be debarred from Government subsidies and contracts. Mr. Fisher laboriously explains that he made a bad choice of words when he said Sir Frederick was "concerned" in the proposition. The Minister of Militia admits that he had the company incorporated which took up the subsidized cold storage project, but says he has no financial interest after the negotiations with the Government took form. Apparently, he transferred his financial interest and influence to Macoun, who certainly has not suffered either in Militia contracts or in Government subsidies from the fact that his father-in-law is Minister of Militia, sits in a Cabinet which gives cold storage grants, and goes personally to the Minister of Agriculture to apply for them.

COULD NOT VOTE THIS DOWN.

Messrs. Foster, Fowler, Daniel Porter, Lennox, reviewed this correspondence and other evidence. On Friday Mr. Lennox closed by moving this resolution in amendment to supply:

"Ministers of the Crown should "not be connected with associations or companies seeking "contracts, aid or subsidies from "the Government of which they "are members."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier made an unusually weak plea that Sir Fred. Borden had not obtained contracts, aid or subsidies for himself. But the Premier did not venture to call his followers to vote down the amendment. He accepted the amendment, though it was more a vote of want of confidence than the Civil Service reform motion rejected two days before.

PETTY GRAFT.

(Winnipeg Telegram.)

It's a long, cold, unprofitable day when the contractor who deals with the Laurier Government does not manage to work in a little graft of some kind. Of course there are the big affairs so common, unfortunately, as to the matters of general knowledge. They overshadow the minor steals, which in comparison look very mean and petty, but the very meanness and littleness of some of them add to the disgrace of it all.

One of the most sordid has to do with a military contract down at Halifax, which called for a supply of breakfast bacon for the barracks. The article supplied was roll bacon, which is about three and a half cents per pound cheaper, resulting in about $7,000 additional profit to the caterer.

Naturally, Tommy Atkins, who had to eat the inferior quality, registered a kick, which is still registered, and is likely to remain so, for who can imagine a great and powerful government intent upon grave matters of state, wasting any time or energy over such a trifle? The incident, however, serves to show that the small fry are not neglecting their opportunities at the spigot even though the gluttons are crowding round the bung pretty closely.

That "little dark room" episode seems to bother the Liberal press. One says Peter Talbot wasn't there. Another howls there wasn't a little dark room at all. A third says Dr. Clark repudiates the whole business. A fourth says it's a dark, deep, indigo lie. And there you are. Gentlemen if you will just stop to take breath we will try to explain. But we beseech, we insist, that you keep silence "until the cows come home," otherwise there is going to be an awful row in the camp.

POSTMASTER SMALL OF HARDISTY SHOT HIMSELF AT STATION.

Hardisty, Alta., June 4—Postmaster Walter Small, of Hardisty, shot himself last night at the station where he was waiting for the incoming mail. As far as can be learned no one witnessed the affair but a large number were on the spot almost immediately and found the deceased lying face down with a revolver beside him. It is not known whether it was accidental or not. The deceased has just lately retired from the firm of Erskine & Small in order to give his whole attention to the post office business and has a large circle of friends who will learn with regret of his untimely end.

FLOOD IN CROW'S NEST

Pincher Creek, Alta. June 5.—Heavy rains in Pincher Creek, Blairmore and The Pas towns, have caused the Pincher creek to rise rapidly. The Brocket railway bridge is broken and train are transferring passengers and mail. There has been no damage to private property as yet but floods are feared

IN FASHION'S REALM.

Jabots Attractive Means of Freshening Up an Old Blouse.

MODISH STYLES IN NECKWEAR

Long Jabots Not Universally Becoming—Short Effects Are More Easily Made—Butterfly Bows Arranged as a Cascade Very New and Smart.

When a blouse has lost its freshness there is nothing so useful as a jabot to give it a new and smart appearance.

A good style to follow in making one is the jabot which reaches below the bust and forms a cascade down the center of the blouse. To fashion this get white mousseline and cut it in two strips across the goods. Two are enough for the average length. Each strip should be about four inches wide. Half an inch above the edge run a tuck the same depth, and a short distance above that run another a little narrower. Roll the edge and whip on valenciennes not over half an inch in width. After this much is accomplished have the strip accordion plaited and sew it to a double piece of fine muslin. At the top of the strip the plaited frill should be sewn across and then carried down one side and ended in a point.

Wide lace and chiffon frilling can be bought ready to put on, but if one wants something of a little different and of really good materials the better way is to make this kind of neckwear at home. A washable jabot is a joy forever and gives the plainest shirt waist or blouse a dressy air. Some of the longer jabots of lace or mousseline have the top finished with a ribbon bow, often in white and again in colors.

Not every woman will find a long jabot becoming. The length should be carefully studied by each one, and if the short neck frill is more suited to her she should forego the fascinations of those delightful long ones which reach almost to the belt. The short ones are even more easily made than the others, and they take so much less lace that real pieces can be utilized in this way. A very full plaited frill of three-quarters of a yard of four inch lace is gathered on a strip of silk tape or ribbon an inch long.

To adjust lace so that it forms butterfly bow effects all down the front from the throat to the end of the jabot is more difficult to achieve, but it is worth the time devoted to its creation. In making one of these neck pieces it must be borne in mind that lightness and daintiness are the effects desired. As soon as the fluffiness is lost the neck piece looks stiff and hard.

A becoming hat is quite as important as a pretty neck arrangement, and the models illustrated are among the most attractive of the spring importations.

WHITE NEAPOLITAN STRAW.

Very chic is the shape of medium size carried out in white neapolitan straw with its low crown wreathed with white coque feathers. The brim rolls sharply over the left side of the crown and is caught down with a plaited rosette of black velvet ribbon centered with a large velvet button. Loops of white ribbon cover the back of the bandeau. Brown satin ribbon is softly folded around the crown of the little toque, which is bent up at the left side, where a brown and white ostrich aigret and a paradise plume sweep backward from a brown and white straw buckle.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—counts blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend is provided with ball and roller bearings wherever any wear occurs. So carefully is the No. 8 put together and so rigorously tested at the factory that it will handle the heaviest hay, and though subjected to the severest strains, still it will be remarkable how few the repairs needed. We can point to Frost & Wood Mowers made twenty years ago that are cutting grass now. Our cutter-bars are formed out of the toughest steel procurable. Pitman heads and jaws are forged steel. Pitman is made of tough, seasoned hickory. The convenient foot lift raises the whole cutter-bar from end to end when passing stones or other obstructions.

Mr. Farmer, this is the mower for you to own—it's economy, wisdom and foresight—an insurance against worry. Send now for our "Farmers' Handy Reckoner" and catalogue—both free. Our agent in your vicinity will gladly explain our mower and other farm implements. No fear to ask him any questions.

THE IMPERIAL BANK.

President D. R. Wilkie of the Imperial Bank and his efficient staff have reason to congratulate themselves on the satisfactory 33rd annual report presented to the shareholders on the 27th inst. The enviable position already attained by this banking institution is further augmented by the story the report tells us for the past twelve months. Finishing the year with a net profit of $721,175, this bank shows unmistakable signs of careful business management. Its assets are in reality available securities and amount to the sum of $43,804,195. Shareholders in this banking institution have ample cause to be highly pleased with the great progress made during the past year.

ORBS OF LIGHT.

The Edmonton Journal informs us that Dr. Clark with his bosom friend, Duncan Marshal, is speaking up in Victoria. If our memory serves us right that is the constituency where the machine backed by Duncan Marshall turned down the people's candidate as they did in Red Deer constituency, and selected the machine's choice. We are further creditably informed that it took over one thousand dollars to get their man nominated.

The Journal says that, according to the Bulletin, the people of the constituency of Victoria have been living in Egyptian darkness until in the due course of events, Duncan Marshall descended upon Vegreville and Vermilion with his political troupe, Dr. Clark, the discredited apostle of Free Trade, and W. H. White, of Wostok, incident.

It was not until then that the electorate of Victoria saw light; their "ignorance," their "density," became dispelled. Great is the power of Duncan Marshall, the handsomely paid organizer of the Liberal party in Alberta, and of Dr. Clark, the Free Tradist, "as he has it in his vest-pocket."

It is to be regretted that such a decent fellow as J. B. Holden, M. L.A., should have been seen with this travelling stock company.

The "orations" must have been thrilling; even the elements became more or less disturbed. We have had much free trade in mud since those stirring meetings.

Markets Wanted.

The Farmers' Advocate in speaking of the appointment of Mr. Stevens, as Live Stock Commissioner for Alberta, says:

An official whose office it will be to consider matters such as this, and others that from time to time crop up in an industry as large as the live stock industry in Alberta is, is urgently required. Since Alberta has been a province its government has not been backward in extending aid to the agricultural and live-stock interests wherever it deemed such aid was required. Up to the present, the department of agriculture has been largely concerned with educational work through the fairs, institutes, stock and grain judging schools. Farmers have been urged to keep and produce better stock, and the cry has been so persistently flung back at institute lecturers promulgating this truth, that it is markets for the live-stock after it is produced that is required and not information rayed out by a corps of government experts, that the department finally decided upon the action it has taken and the appointment it has made. Alberta farmers have had about as much "assistance" in the educational line as they care for. The average of them has about as fair an understanding of the farming and stock-raising business as the average expert sent out by the government. What they want in the way of government assistance is a guarantee that no artificial barriers will be allowed to obstruct the free selling of the products which their labor has created, that no men sitting outside and contributing nothing to the industry shall be permitted to exact toll from it, and that no individual or corporation transporting, selling or distributing those products shall charge exorbitantly for the services rendered. If the new commissioner can accomplish some of these things, even in a measure, he will render valuable service to the live-stock interests of Alberta.

The demand is greater for economic than it is for agricultural experts. Canadian farmers have been busy studying how best to produce goods while all the time the development of markets has stood still. Alberta farmers are taking a pronounced stand upon this question and some innovations in government activities are to be expected.

Readers of the News know this is the stand we have taken for some time. It is markets the settlers want for their produce, and not lectures on how to run their farms. The majority of settlers in this district are Anglo-Saxon, with knowledge superior in many cases to the lecturers they hear, and they are tired of this kind of thing.

Geo. F. Root, we claim, has done more to stir the two governments up in this respect than any other man in the province.

His organization of the Central Alberta Stock Growers' Association was superb.

The beef commission was no doubt an outcome of the kicks registered by the stock growers.

The live stock commission is an outcome of the beef commission, traceable to the stock growers and to Mr, Root. Evidently the government are awaking to the fact that the people will be heard.

The Calgary Herald has openly advocated government guarantee of railway bonds in Alberta, in so far as it applies to Calgary. That is the Herald reserves the right to oppose such a guarantee to railways that do not happen to pass through Calgary. The Herald says:

"No government can "adopt a policy of government guarantee of railway bonds" and make it generally applicable. Each individual application must always be dealt with on its merits. If a proposed road is of great advantage to the province it may properly be assisted. A new line from Calgary to the east is of sufficient importance to Alberta to warrant assistance, if built at once. Go after more railways for Calgary and southern Alberta and don't bother loading the government up with recommendations of a general policy which could not be adopted.

This sounds very nice for Calgary, perhaps. But it is far better for the government to build and own the railways than to guarantee the bonds. The time has come for the government to do something. The people are ready for government ownership, but we do not sympathize with a movement that allows the government to pledge the credit of the Province for the benefit of Calgary.

THE POST OFFICE AND THE LOCAL PAPERS.

The local papers are getting it good and hard in the neck by the government these days. That stanch independent paper, the Olds Gazette, had this to say last week:

A rumor that the management of the Dominion Fair intend to put out a supplement dealing with the Fair and have it issued with the various local papers in Alberta seems to have reached the ears of the post office department, and at once they are up on their dignity and ready to swat the weeklies, and incidentally the big fair. An order, resulting from this anticipated action, has been issued to the effect that if the supplement is run through the papers each paper will have to be paid at the regular rate for printed matter, and stamps affixed. Now wouldn't that take the bun? It is surprising how hard it is for any of these western papers to overcome the postoffice department's methods of preventing them from advertising the possibilities of this western country for settlers. Evidently this must be done through high-priced agencies like the North Atlantic Trading Co. where the government can assist in rolling up an expenditure of $108,000,000 yearly, instead of allowing the western papers to circulate in the States, which is the most natural source for our farming population, or allowing them to carry a supplement such as the one which it is said is proposed to issue, and which will do as much to advertise this great exhibition of the actual products and possibilities of this province as any government pamphlet or immigration agency among the Doukhobours could do.

To stop any pain, anywhere in 20 minutes simply take just one of Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. Pain means congestion—blood pressure—that is all. Dr. Shoop's Headache--or Pinn Pain Tablets--will quickly coax blood pressure away from pain centers. After that, pain is gone. Headeche, Neuralgia, painful periods with women, etc. get instant help. 20 Tablets 25c. Sold by Brown's Pharmacy.

The local government is advertising a course of lectures on Dry Farming, to be given at towns between Medicine Hat and Didsbury, beginning next week, the 15th inst. Dry farming discussions in the face of the weather we have been having the past few weeks is to say the least rather ridiculous. For the past two weeks we have hardly had a dry day, and most of the time it has been a downpour. If the learned speaker, Prof. H. W. Campbell, of Lincoln, Nebraska, will give us a few lectures on "wet" farming he will be doing the country a great service. But dry farming in a country where it does nothing but rain is the limit.

If one feels dull and spiritless in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advertising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Brown's Pharmacy.

Mr. Mike La Duke has returned to his homestead after spending the winter in Seattle.

Mr. Carl Bransell has left our district for the summer.

Mr. Wm. Rutherford is building an addition to his house.

Mr. Leslie Reilly and Miss Pidgeon spent the holiday with the former's parents. Miss Gertie Reilly left with them for a week's visit in Red Deer.

A very successful bee was held on Sat. May 23, on the Union church. About half the walls are up.

There passed away on Saturday morning about 9 a. m., Mrs. McLean, a resident of our district, who has been sick for 3 weeks. She was very ill with sciatica at first, and then her kidney got out of place. She was 61 years of age at the time of her decease, and had come from Richmond, Que., where she lived before coming to Alberta. A short service was held at the house on Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. by Dr. West. The body was taken to Red Deer for burial. The family have the sympathy of this community in their time of sorrow.

Mr. Frank Owen, who has been sick with rheumatism and dropsy for quite a while, was taken in to the Memorial Hospital last week to be attended to. It is hoped he will speedily recover.

Mdme. Pioreaux, who has been at Mr. Bureau's all winter, left for Edmonton last week. Her son, Daniel, will reside in our midst still.

Mrs. M. D. Case has been very sick with la grippe, but is getting better as the weather gets warmer.

Crops and gardens are looking splendid in this district.

Residents in Leslieville district will be interested to know that views of that neighborhood were amongst those illustrating a lecture recently given by Mr. R. Yorke Jr. in the St. Simon School, Salford, Manchester, England. Not the least interested amongst the audience were the Messrs. Anquetil and Brookes, well known in this district. The lecture entitled "Westward Ho" was descriptive of life out West and of a journey from Manchester, Eng., to Victoria, B. C. The audience were highly interested and signified their appreciation by hearty applause. Our readers will be pleased to know that Mr. Yorke's services are in request for addresses on Western Canada and he will not fail to remember the needs of the English Church in the Medicine River district.

The Creamery Question.

Penhold, May 30th, 1908.

To the Editor of The News.

Dear Sir,— As I see the Creamery business is being discussed in your columns, will you kindly give space for the following remarks. As regards government management of creameries no one will dispute that it was a good move at the time when everything was uncertain. Not many experienced dairymen at that date would care to venture to put much money in a creamery or take his chances of finding a market for the product at that time. Skilful as some of the gov't officials have been, it is doubtful if they would have been very successful had they begun operations when the private creamery first began business.

In any country, in almost any line of business, the first attempts are liable to be failures. There should be a good opening here for a flour mill, yet in a few months the Red Deer mill closed and has remained closed. There is nothing more uncertain than the creamery business. A man may put in his cream to-day and take it out to-morrow. There is nothing binding as to quantity or length of time. Was it any wonder then that some of the beginners failed? Under such circumstances it was wise in the government to lend a helping hand but would it not have been equally wise for the gov't to have lent a hand to the private creameries of that day? To have regulated the freight rates, looked up the markets, inspected the butter, and if need be provided an instructor and put the business on a substantial and healthy basis.

As it appears by the showing of the co-operative men that no creamery money goes to Calgary or Edmonton to pay gov't officials, that those creameries have been spoon fed all these years. That being the case they should have paid their patrons a higher figure per pound than the private creameries, but as I have compared the statements from the gov't creamery with those from the private creamery different times I found the private creamery prices higher, I do not wonder that the private creameries are gaining ground.

I have been hauling cream to a private creamery now for about seven years, and the load has increased fully ten fold, and of all the gov't patrons I have got during that time not one of them ever had their cream rejected by the gov't or any other creamery. Having compared the statements of the Red Deer Creamery and the Trimble Creamery for the summer of 1907 I find Mr. Trimble's prices considerably higher. It follows then that if the nation has to be taxed to advance the interests of the co-operative creamery it is only fair that the gov't should give an equal share in behalf of the private creameries. Surely the people shall not be taxed to help one class of business men at the expense of another as it appears has been done all these years.

The Directors of the co-operative creameries have sent their haulers farther to get the cream of a patron of the private creamery than they would go to get the cream of a man who could get to no other creamery. What is important and which can be easily proved is that the private creamery has done more to get out the cream for the people that were not in search of any other creamery than ever the co-operative creameries have done.

With regard to myself, when I first started sending cream there was no private creamery so the co-operative men had a good chance to show the policy they would pursue when they were master of the situation. It was in vain that I urged both of the haulers to come for my cream. They both said I would have to haul it to the nearest point where their wagon came. As that was the state of affairs I found it was less time and trouble to take it to the creamery at once as there was a good trail to the Red Deer creamery, but nevertheless I had to pay for the hauling as the full amount was kept out of my cheque. I will say however that the late Mr. H. Cooper out of his own goodwill returned a small part of the money and said he would not have charged anything but that the directors compelled him to.

Now why has this question been opened up? It is evident that the co-operative men intend to leave nothing undone to drive Mr. Trimble out of the business. What have they against Mr. Trimble? Why a great deal. He has made them pay the people a good deal of hard money they never would have paid had he not been there. He is going to continue to make them hand over the money to the people, that is their just due, and I am sure that every fair minded man will say, there is room enough in this great country for all the creameries we can get. So let us wish them all success, and do all we can to furnish cream to make them all a success and give us British Fair Play.

GEO. MARTIN.

The Creamery Again.

To the Editor of The News.

Penhold, May 13th, 1908.

Dear Sir,—I notice in your issue of May 6th, a letter written by Mr. Trimble on behalf of the private creamery, and against the Government creamery. Why should the writer rail against any Government institution, when he is a staunch supporter of the Government? It is just here where the rub comes in, and if only the farmers would remember that it is a co-operative creamery, and run for the benefit of the many and not the few, it would have many more patrons. I am well aware that no one has canvassed for patrons for it, trying to make it out as a philanthropic institution, as has been done to my personal knowledge with the Trimble creamery. It is no less a certain fact that proof has not been forthcoming of the better price given at the private than at the other. We are all well aware that if the creamery business were all in private hands, as is the pork and beef business, we should have Mr. Trimble saying as Pat Burns did before the Beef Commission, that if he shut up shop the West would starve in ten days. But there is no fear of them shutting up, as they get too good a thing out of it, and most farmers have paid too much for their farms to lower their value by spoiling the creamery business. I have too much knowledge of co-operative businesses to say anything but the best I can in their favour. The North of England, yes and the Continent of Europe too, has gone ahead wonderfully through this movement. True, it took a good deal of faith and hard, self-sacrificing work to accomplish what has been done, but the results justify it, as they will in regard to our creamery if everyone does his best. I have before me now the balance sheet of one co-operative society, of which I was one time a member, showing a total of 6,214 members—heads of families—and a quarterly turnover of 500,000 dollars, and there are scores of such. The biggest one, I believe, is that of Leeds, with its 50,000 members. The members of those societies do not believe in putting their money into the pockets of such men as Rockfeller and other great millionaire thieves, to enable them to defy law and government, and to put power into their hands that they will abuse. The co-operative plan is not "all for one," but all for everyone. Canada will have enough millionaires without the farmers giving their cream to make them. Mr. Carswell's letter was considered by many to be fair and square, and he certainly had not self-interest at heart by writing his letter. Mr. Trimble's invitation to all us backsliders to join his creamery puts one in mind of the old familiar ditty, "Duckie, duckie, duckie, duckie, come and be killed." Let us hope that the cream producers will take the invitation for what it is worth, and let us hope that we will soon have co-operative pork-packing and other industries, and there will soon be a bigger boom than ever. Long live the Alberta Farmers' Association, and may its influence soon be felt, like the Grain Growers' Association of Manitoba.

Yours, etc.,
ROBERT DIXON.

The School Football team played the return match with Innisfail on Saturday last. Although the weather had been rainy for some time the field was in fairly good shape except for one hole. It was a fast and fairly even game from start to finish but the Red Deer boys seemed to be able to find the goal best. Main was the first to score for Red Deer after a few minutes play and W. Postill scored on a corner a little later which left the score at half time 2-0 in favor of Red Deer School. After half Innisfail got a move on and scored their only goal but the Red Deer boys returned the compliment by scoring two more and narrowly missing a third. So the score stood 4-1 in favor of Red Deer School.

Canada's Destiny.

Citizen R. C. Brumpton favoured the men's mass meeting last Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church with a carefully prepared and comprehensive address upon the above important topic.

The speaker briefly reviewed the epoch making times of the past that had produced the great Canadian Empire of to-day, and had stimulated a virile consciousness. He then considered the question of independence, and maintained that such a movement would prove to be unintelligable if not absolutely impracticable.

An independent Canadian state could not even protect herself, and must prove a helpless prize for European enterprise, American aggression, or Oriental exploitation. Because of her extensive frontiers, extraordinary sea board, and intrinsic, strategic value, a Canadian state would inevitably invite foreign conquest.

Annexation, Mr. Brumpton did not for a single moment entertain. He said that no 20th century Canadian ever seriously considered for a moment such a destiny. While the American constitution must be recognized as a political masterpiece, the practical working out of that constitution was very far from being ideal.

British principles of government remain unexcelled in character, and unapproachable as an operating power. No solid social, commercial or political advantage would accrue to the Canadian nation by being merged into the famous constellation of United States.

There then remained the imperial opportunity for closer fellowship with the great self-governing British nations that comprise the empire of Edward VII. This alternative was warmly recommended by the speaker. Canada should enjoy rather increased facilities for negotiating with foreign powers, and Mr. Brumpton noted the movement inaugurated by the Mother Country herself, encouraging the exercise of a more definite Canadian influence in this direction.

A centralized and controlling imperial parliament was not considered practicable as no one council could possibly transact the volume of business that would necessarily confront them. Each part must govern itself, but a common council could meet regularly to suggest to each section rules and plans for the mutual upbuilding of the imposing whole. Matters of imperial preference and defence would have to be satisfactorily adjusted. But Mr. Brumpton believed that the British genius would solve every problem and conquer every obstruction, and finally exhibit to the world the spectacle of a world wide federation of self-governing dominions bound together by common affections and ideas, relying upon imperial armaments for protection, and paying homage to an imperial crown.

The gathering was eminently representative of Red Deer citizenship, and the open discussion was bright and valuable.

Whitebrush Celebrates.

The Old Settlers of Whitebrush held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. Pearson on Empire Day. In spite of lowering weather, about 300 people were present, and neither the bountiful repast, the sports, nor the speeches were marred by cloudy weather. Mr. Harry Hieronymous, the president of 1908, made a few pertinent remarks which are worthy the consideration of our local government officials. He said, "The early settlers came into this province when everything was new. They suffered the privations of pioneer life. They lived on about one-third what it would have cost them to live had they remained where they came from. They learned to subsist on the products which they could raise in Alberta. When they had subdued the soil, and succeeded in adapting themselves to conditions here, some Government official comes along and says, 'Here, you people don't know anything. We will give you an experimental farm, and teach you how to farm; or we will send around a man to lecture, and teach your wives to make butter and raise chickens.' Now every farmer believes that if any of these Government men had to earn their living by farming an adjoining farm, they would starve to death."

Mr. Geo. F. Root, Conservative candidate for the Red Deer Riding, gave a brief address. After a fitting tribute to the life and character of Queen Victoria, he cited the natural resources of the province, referred to the advantages, and disadvantages of pioneer life, and spoke of the debt of gratitude which the Province and the Dominion owed to those men who had blazed the trail across the continent, and made known to the world the natural resources and agricultural possibilities of the North-west. In referring to present favorable conditions for crops, he asked, "If you realize your present expectations of a bountiful crop, where and how are you going to market your surplus?" He contended that the most urgent need of our present development was more and better markets, and better transportation facilities. More railroads were desirable, but railroads without rolling stock did not help the farmers. In 1907 the railroad did not have anything like cars enough to handle the movement of the crop, although there was not the usual percentage of surplus. He contended that nature's bountiful provisions of fuel, game, fish, timber, and coal was for the settlers of a country, and should be administered in their interest. He pointed out the need of men fighting for good governments, not with brawn and bullets, but with brain and ballots, and concluded a eulogy of the land with the advice to Albertans to get land and keep it.

Mr. Roots' remarks were received with hearty applause. There is the ring of experience and the quality of sincerity in all he says, that wins the confidence of his audience.

Mr. Thompson spoke of what young men could do to make a better province, and Mr. Scott and others gave reminiscences of the old days. Master Scott, the first white child born on Buffalo Lake, was present. The Old Settlers will hold their next fete on May 24th, 1909.
